THE UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA STAFF BULLETIN

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

JUNE 1, 1972

Only time and cold weather will tell if the steps taken by workmen in Central Academic Building will be effective in stopping the "leaks" in the main floor windows. They have injected hydrogen between the large double panes of glass, to create a space that should prevent condensation from forming inside.

6 and 7 for the Registered Music Teachers' Association of British Columbia in Victoria. Professor Brauss also gave a solo recital.

VISITORS

J. R. STOREY, Senior Lecturer in the Department of Physics, University of Auckland, New Zealand, has arrived at the University to spend a study leave of one year with the Institute of Earth and Planetary Physics. Dr. Storey will be studying geomagnetic micropulsation activity.

NOTICES

ADMINISTRATION REVIEW COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED

The Board of Governors has established an Administration Review Committee with the membership of: A. D. MCTAVISH (Chairman), M. A. ADAM, B. M. BARKER, F. T. JENNER, and MRS. D. MCCULLOCH. Also to attend meetings are representatives of the Academic Staff Association (P. FREEMAN) and the Non-Academic Staff Association (P. ARNOLD); they are to be non-voting. The committee was first suggested by AASUA and endorsed by General Faculties Council which then recommended its establishment to the Board. The committee will investigate assertions that the administrative costs of the University are too high. Staff are invited to submit any comments, recommendations, suggestions, etc. to B. H. McDONALD, Assistant to the President, who is serving as Secretary to the Committee.

NAMES OF TWO BUILDINGS CHANGED

Approval has been given for the official title of "Medical Sciences Building" to be applied to what has been called up to now the "Basic Medical Sciences Building." The old Medical Sciences Building will be renamed "The Dentistry-Pharmacy Centre."

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE TEACHING CONTINUES INTO SUMMER SESSION

The Committee to Investigate Teaching is carrying on two of its projects during the Summer Session.

Room 289 Central Academic Building is a classroom furnished in a distinctive manner and it is available to Summer Session staff for classes. Those interested should call JUDY BRUNT of the Office of Institutional Research and Planning at 432-5295 for available times.

Instructional staff members who are interested in examining the Pass-Fail system as an alternative to the 9-point grading system for Summer Session courses are invited to call DAVID OTTO of the Office of Institutional Research and Planning (also at 432-5295) for details. The same limitations of the Pass-Fail experiment as set forth by the Committee to Investigate Teaching for individuals during the Winter Session will apply during the Summer Session.

CO-ORDINATOR OF INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES REQUIRED

Moorhead State College, a liberal arts college of approximately 5,000 students in north-western Minnesota, is inviting applications for the newly-created position of Co-ordinator of Instructional Resources.

Duties will be to develop, direct, and instruct in the new Media Generalist Certification program and to assist the Education Department in planning, developing, and directing the Professional Materials Center in the new Education Building. The directors of the College Library, the TV Production Center, the A-V Center, and the Professional Materials Center will be under the direction of and will report to the Co-ordinator.

Applicants should hold a doctorate with training and experience which encompasses the areas of print and non-print instructional resources, modern instructional technology, and instructional design. An exceptionally rich experiential background in these areas may be considered in lieu of the doctor's degree.

The salary is open. This is a twelve-month assignment with 22 days paid vacation.

Applicants should send letters of application, personal information data, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to GLAYDON D. ROBBINS, Dean, Faculty of Professional Studies, Moorhead State College, Moorhead, Minnesota 56560.
